

Our Hero's Reign.

RESPECTFULLY DEDICATED TO GEN. McCLELLAN.

BY ANNA W. SPENCER, OF RHODE ISLAND.

AIR—“The Dearest Place on Earth to me is Home.”

Oh ! sound the trumpet cheerfully—
McClellan holds the reign ;
His watchword is true Liberty—
And Temperance again.

Our hero's notes are ringing
O'er mountain, sea, and plain ;
Ten thousand hearts are praying
For Freedom—Peace again.

There is an arm in prayer to save,
Though the storm of war is drear ;
God shields the noble and the brave,
When Rebels always fear.

Then sound his name in story,
Oh ! bear it far above—
The notes of war and glory—
To the throne of heavenly love.
